

December 8, 2010

At its annual awards ceremony, the Department of Justice recognized OIG Special Agent Anthony Hoben for his work on public corruption cases in South Dakota. He, along with South Dakota and FBI team members, accepted a superior performance team award from Attorney General Eric Holder for their investigation of graft and corruption on the Crow Creek Indian Reservation in central South Dakota. Tribal members praised the investigative team for bringing a "measure of justice" to the reservation.

Click here for the full press release.